Who will benefit from this program?
This program is designed to meet the needs of experienced practitioners who seek to broaden and deepen their professional knowledge and to expand the contributions they can make to education. Classroom teachers who apply to the program should hold a bachelor’s degree and a standard or professional teaching license. This degree is open to educators who do not seek any type of teacher licensure.

How long has the program existed?
The online option of the Master of Education degree program in curriculum and instruction was developed in 2005. It was a response to requests by school systems for innovative assistance in providing useful professional development for experienced teachers and administrators. The online course syllabi and faculty are identical to those for the on campus courses.

Is the program completely online, or do I need to visit the campus?
The entire 30 credit program can be completed online. However students may choose to take a mix of online and on campus courses. Visitation to the campus is welcomed, but not required.

What type of computer software is required? What is the format of a course?
Access to the internet via Netscape or Internet Explorer is required. To view the format of a course, visit http://continuinged.uml.edu/online. Click on “Test Drive A Course” link, located in the left column. This provides a comprehensive review of typical online course.

How long does it take to complete the degree requirements?
The program takes approximately 2 - 3 years to complete on a part-time basis, taking one or two courses per semester, fall, spring and summer. Candidates have a maximum of five years to complete the degree. The final, full year practicum is project based and ordinarily can be completed in your current place of employment.

What is the cost of the program? Is financial aid available?
The cost per three-credit course is $1320. Massachusetts and out of state residents pay the same fee. Financial aid maybe available to matriculated students enrolled in 6 or more credits per semester. You may contact the Financial Assistance Office at 978-934-4220 for more information.

How do I register?
Students must register with the Continuing Studies office by telephone, fax, mail or in person. You can contact Continuing Studies by telephone at 978-934-2700. Complete registration information is available online at http://continuinged.uml.edu/general/registration.htm

When is the application deadline?
We admit students for each semester, fall, spring, and summer. However, in order to be admitted for a particular semester, your materials should be received at least six weeks before that semester begins in order to allow for processing and for the Admissions Committee to act on your application.

What is the application process?
Applications can be found online at: http://www.uml.edu/grad. Please note that the Graduate School of Education requires results from the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) to accompany the application packet. Also required for the application are three letters of recommendation, transcripts from all colleges and universities previously attended, and a one to two page statement of purpose.

How many credits can I transfer from another institution?
A total of 12 credits may be transferred into the program; this includes courses taken here prior to matriculation. Once you apply, you may submit an academic petition to request transfer of credits from another accredited institution. You must fill out an academic petition and send a copy of the course syllabus or catalog description along with the official transcripts showing grade earned in the course. Courses taken as part of another degree program are not eligible for transfer. The academic petition and the appropriate documentation should be sent to the Graduate School of Education, 61 Wilder Street, 5th Floor O’Leary Library, Lowell, MA 01854.

Can I take classes before applying officially to the program?
Students may take up to 4 classes (12 credits) prior to submitting a formal application for the program. These courses will count as transfer credit if and when you choose to apply.

Is there a recommended sequence of courses?
Classes may be taken in any sequence. We recommend “Principles of Supervision” as a good starting point.
