Located 25 miles north of Boston, UMASS Lowell Graduate School of Education is a vibrant site for teaching and learning. We seek to expand the diversity of our faculty in order to enhance the academic experience for students and better reflect the communities we serve. The school is NCATE accredited and is noted for its strength in post baccalaureate teacher preparation, masters degree programs for experienced educators on campus and online, and doctoral programs in leadership in schooling, language arts and literacy, math and science education. Working in close partnership with PK-12 schools in the region, the Graduate School is Education is dedicated to transforming and improving the quality of education for students of all ages. We seek a dynamic individual to fill an open rank tenure track faculty position in the Leadership in Schooling program.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Doctorate in educational leadership or related field, with substantial leadership experience, expertise in educational policy and school reform; teaching experience at the graduate level; record of research, grants, knowledge of research methods; and scholarly publications; experience with diverse communities; willingness with new technologies, including online teaching.

Application Procedure:

Send a letter of interest, vitae, copies of two recent publications, and the names of three references.
Apply To
Search Committee for Faculty Position in Leadership Schooling
Graduate School of Education
C/O Anita Greenwood, Ed.D
University of Massachusetts Lowell
61 Wilder Street 510 O’Leary Library
Lowell
Lowell MA 01854
Anita_Greenwood@uml.edu

Assigned Tour of Duty
To be determined

The University of Massachusetts is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Title IX, H/V, ADA 1990
Employer and Executive Order 11246, 41 CFR60-741 4, 41 CFR60-250 4, 41 CFR60-1 40 and 41
CFR60-1,4 our hereby incorporated.

Internal Distribution: In accordance with University policy; List on file in Human Resources Office
Rev 7/03